DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1) The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

1-1) Claims 1, 3-6, 7, 8, 9, 11-15, 17, 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Smithies et al (US 6091835, filed Feb 1998).

Regarding claim 1, 7, 8, 9, 17 and 19, Smithies teaches “computer useable ... transcript by a user” (ie., method and system for recording ... transcripts ... party’s electronic affirmation of a document...)(col 7, Summary section).

Smithies teaches “...performing a first hash ... contents of the electronic transcript” (ie., transcript generator ... hash corresponding to the content)(col 14, lines 5-20).

Smithies teaches “...concatenating data ... identifying a user” (ie., set the terms of document ... transcript generator ... creates secure record)(col 12, lines 28-40)(ie., evidence to corroborate ... transcript generation module collects)(col 13, lines 52-60).

Smithies teaches “...performing a second has operation ... transcript and the data” (ie., hash encoding of later copy comparison to previous hash encoding)(col 14, lines 14-20).

Smithies teaches "...providing for the recording ... the data" (ie., Evidence ... Affirmation ... time ... transcript generator ... time stamp ... affirming party)(col 13, line 52 – col 14, line 4).

Smithies teaches "...obtaining ... time stamping" (ie., transcript object ... validity of affirmation process ... later use in verifying ... passed to client)(col 14, lines 48-60).

Smithies teaches "...digitally signing the notary record" (ie., ... Act of signing ...)(col 13, lines 52-67).

Smithies teaches "...forming an ... data identifying the user" (ie., client sends affirmation information to the transcript generator ... in line 50 or col 14, the recording function gathers all the evidentiary components)(col 13, line 52 – col 14, line 67).

Regarding claim 3, 11, Smithies teaches "data includes ... user" (ie., affirming party ... identifying party entering affirming data ... password)(col 7, lines 23-30).

Regarding claim 4, 12, Smithies teaches "data includes ... the user" (ie., ... unique secret number ...)(col 7, lines 45-50).

Regarding claim 5, 13, Smithies teaches "data includes ... name" (ie., ... party's name)(col 7, lines 50-52).

Regarding claim 6, 14, Smithies teaches "data ... identifies the transcript"(ie., identification data by system that transcript generator collects)(col 13, lines 52-60).

Regarding claim 15, Smithies teaches "file contains ... transcript" (ie., transcript object can be encrypted in a statement file)(col 8, lines 25-30).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Art Unit: 2176

2) The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2-1) Claims 2, 10, 16, 18 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Smithies et al (as cited above), in view of Blake-Wilson et al (US 6336188, filed May 1998).

Regarding claim 2, 10, Smithies does not teach, but Blake-Wilson teaches "has operation is a RIPEMD-160 hash operation" (ie., hash function ... RIPEMD-160)(col 5, lines 25-40).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify Smithies to include RIPEMD hashing as taught by Blake-Wilson, providing the benefit of authentication key agreement protocols used in digital data communication systems (Blake-Wilson, col 1, lines 4-5, lines 60-65).

Regarding claims 16, 18, 20, Smithies teaches "file excludes page numbers, line numbers, headers, and footers" (ie., the transcript file does not indicate the presence of page numbers, line numbers, headers or footers)(Summary section). Additionally, has been very common to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to use word processor software applications (ie., Microsoft Word,... etc) that allow for toggling page number, line numbers, headers and footers off and on depending on the user's choice.
